1. Rationale for subcontracting

The Service's vision is to provide high quality teaching and learning locally across Luton, which responds to national and local priorities for skills and learning and meets market needs and demands. Where the Service's traditional curriculum offer no longer matches the skills needs in Luton, it commissions provision which complements its own offer. This enables the Service to extend the range and accessibility of its provision to meet identified skills gaps in the county, thus building capacity to serve the best interests of learners, employers and the economy. Diversifying its offer allows the Service to engage with new markets and support the delivery of niche provision. Subcontracting provision will also be sourced when necessary for delivery required to assist local residents to recover from the impact of COVID19 & to help meet the aims of the Luton 2040 vision.

Subcontracting with a range of providers enables the Service to meet national, local and Service priorities.

Where the Service has identified a need for subcontracting details of the opportunity will be published on our website www.lutonacl.ac.uk. Providers who indicate an interest in working with us will be invited to begin a rigorous due diligence and pre-contracting process details of which will be available on the website.

The due diligence process and any associated procedures must have approval from the Service Manager before any form of subcontracting can be undertaken. Successful providers will receive a contracting letter and Service Level Agreement with relevant appendices including targets and payment schedules.

All subcontractors will undergo an annual review which may/may not lead to contract extensions. Any time critical documentation previously submitted such as Public Liability Insurance, etc will also need to be refreshed.

2. Maintaining Standards

In October 2017 the Service was inspected by Ofsted and rated as 'Good'. The Service seeks to engage subcontractors who have achieved a similar standard and who share an ethos of working for continuous improvement, we will therefore not subcontract with organisations who have been graded 3 or 4 by Ofsted.

The Service ensures subcontractors reach or exceed national standards set by Ofsted and the Education & Skills Funding Agency through a rigorous due diligence process. Once appointed, subcontractors are subject to a robust monitoring, review and evaluation process which provides both challenge and support, thus raising standards and improving outcomes for learners and employers.

Through its monitoring and review process, the Service enables subcontractors to share good practice and to learn from each other. Where areas for improvement are identified, the Service works with the subcontractor to build their capacity and capability to offer the best possible services to learners, thus reducing risk and improving performance. The Service also offers Workshop To Raise Awareness of Prevent (WRAP) training to all subcontractors in order to help safeguard residents of Luton from radicalisation.

Ultimately the Service and its subcontractors work together to develop high quality providers which benefit the sector as a whole, as well as individual providers and their learners. This means that residents have broader range of high quality provision that they can access in order to upskill.

3. Contingency Plan

All learners who are provided with education and training under an agreement between the Service and a subcontracting organisation remain the responsibility of the Service. The Service will follow robust pre-contracting processes and procedures to ensure the quality and stability of potential subcontracting organisations.

The Service mitigates risks by:

- Commissioning local providers where possible
- Commissioning provision for local needs
- Setting funding maximums for community learning provision

In the event of the following the Service will be responsible for making alternative arrangements for the delivery of education and training:

- The Service needs to withdraw from a subcontract arrangement, or
- A subcontractor withdraws from the arrangement, or
- A subcontractor goes into liquidation or administration

The Service will explore a range of options, to organise the continuation of education and training including:

- Using other local FE providers
- Using other existing subcontractors where provision matches
- Taking on the provision from the sub-contractor for the remainder of the contract period where resources permit
- Contracting with the next suitable bidder from the original bidding process

4. Precontracting meeting

The Service communicates its reason for subcontracting to each subcontractor before each subcontracting relationship is agreed by publishing this policy online and providing a copy to subcontractors during pre-contracting meetings.

During the precontracting meeting the Service will discuss the services that we provide to the subcontractor and provide a list of specific costs for managing the subcontractor, quality monitoring activities and any other support activities.

The Service will provide the subcontractor with a copy of the costs and how each cost is reasonable and proportionate to delivery of the subcontracted teaching or learning and how each costs contributes to delivering high quality learning within their contract documentation.
